ABOUT SOEL

The Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Greece (SOEL) is a Public Interest Professional Institute representing Greek auditors. The Institute is currently comprised of 62 audit firms active in the Greek market and has approximately 4,000 registered members. SOEL is also a founding Member Body Organization of IFAC, ACCOUNTANCY EUROPE (former FEE) and the FCM.

The Institute has established educational and training programmes to create more pathways to the profession through the Institute of Education of SOEL (IESOEL).

ICAEW-SOEL ACCREDITED MEMBERSHIP PROGRAMME (AMP)

ICAEW and SOEL (the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Greece) have partnered and formed the Accredited Membership Programme (AMP), which enables students to study and qualify as chartered accountants and members of both bodies. This route provides a route for members to become registered auditors in Greece, in full respect of the national legislation.

BEGIN A CAREER THAT'S MORE THAN YOU'D IMAGINE

Start your journey and take your career further than you'd imagine with the ICAEW-SOEL AMP. There are two ways to become an ICAEW Chartered Accountant and a SOEL member with the AMP:

ICAEW and SOEL membership via the AMP

1. You can achieve the ACA qualification by successfully completing all components of ACA training which include:

As an ACA student, you don't have to take the following four ACA modules: Certificate Level – Law and Principles of Taxation and Professional Level – Business Planning: Taxation and Tax Compliance. Instead, you will need to study for the equivalent SOEL tax and law modules. Once you successfully complete these, you can become a member of ICAEW and SOEL, as per current legislation in Greece.

2. Once you complete the SOEL exams or the METKEL programme, you can achieve the ACA qualification by claiming 11 credits for prior learning and successfully completing four ACA modules: Professional Level Business Strategy; and Advanced Level Corporate Reporting, Strategic Business Management and Case Study. Successful completion will give you ICAEW membership.

TOP TIPS

ICAEW and SOEL students, including students of the ACCA Joint Examination Scheme and students studying at many universities in Greece, can apply for credit for prior learning (CPL). ACCA students and affiliates and IESOEL students and SOEL graduates may be eligible to apply for CPL free of charge for all exams that have been accredited by ICAEW*.

NKUA graduates of the MSc in Applied Economics and Finance (with the specialism in Applied Accounting and Auditing), are eligible for up to 12 CPL.

For more information and to view the available credits, please visit icaew.com/cpl

ICAEW MEMBERSHIP FOR EXPERIENCED SOEL MEMBERS

If you are a fully qualified SOEL member with at least five years' full membership and hold a strategic role, you may be eligible to join ICAEW based on your experience using our Pathways to Membership route.

For more information, please visit icaew.com/pathways

YOUR STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO COMPLETING THE ICAEW-SOEL AMP

To complete the AMP and become a member of both ICAEW and SOEL, you will need to successfully complete the ACA and SOEL qualifications. Here is your guide to achieving both qualifications.

1. REGISTER AS A STUDENT

You can start studying for the Accredited Membership Programme as either an ACA or SOEL student. Whichever qualification you start first, make sure you register as a student with both ICAEW and SOEL.

2. APPLY FOR CREDIT FOR PRIOR LEARNING

Credit for prior learning is available towards the ACA and SOEL modules. ICAEW and SOEL students, including students of the ACCA Joint Examination Scheme and students studying at many universities in Greece, can apply for CPL. ACCA students and affiliates and IESOEL students and SOEL graduates may be eligible to apply for CPL free of charge for all exams that have been accredited by ICAEW*. For more information and to view the available credits, visit icaew.com/cpl

3. START STUDYING

Start your journey by studying for, and successfully completing, the ACA and SOEL qualifications. You can start studying for the exams straight away; our flexible tuition options may help you.

4. FIND A TRAINING AGREEMENT

To become an ICAEW Chartered Accountant, you will need to complete an ACA training agreement with one of our c5,000 ICAEW authorised training employers. For more details on your journey to membership to ICAEW and SOEL please visit here: <https://careers.icaew.com/find-your-route/aca-training-in-greece>.

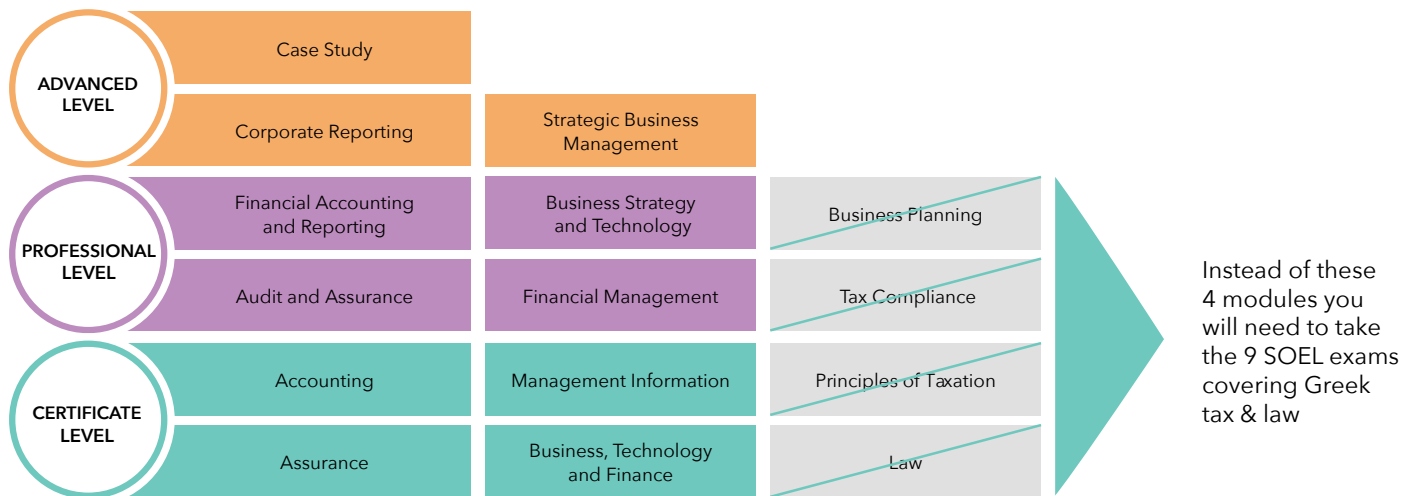

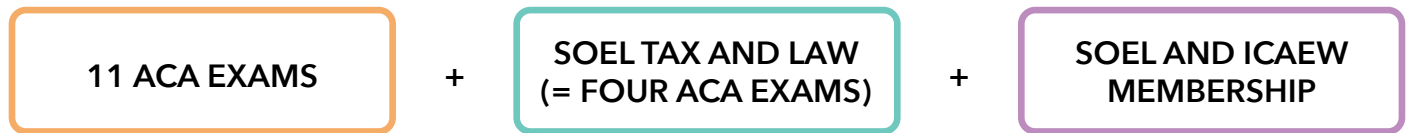

5. BE ACCEPTED AS A MEMBER

Once you have successfully completed your ACA training and SOEL exams and are accepted as an ICAEW and SOEL member, you can use the prestigious ACA and OEL letters after your name.
